P.C.

1. Learned counsel for the petitioner states that he was dispossessed on 25th September 2006, and even though he approached to the concerned police station the police officer has not registered the crime. Therefore, he addressed a letter on 28th September 2006 to the Police Commissioner. He has produced a copy of the said letter. However, from the copy we do not find the grievance made to the Commissioner that the police officer has refused to register the F.I.R. or crime. We find that section 154 of the Code of Criminal Procedure is not complied with before approaching to this court. The petitioner has an alternate remedy of filing a complaint before the Magistrate. Therefore, we referain to entertain this petition. Petition is hereby disposed of. The petitioner is at liberty to follow an approprite remedy available to him.
